Notes for Francis Bloodworth:

I have tried to find as many sources as I possibly can for the Bloodworth line. Where there are no sources indicated, this means that I do not have evidence that the information is correct. However, many records "suggest" the information is correct. I have been tracing the Bloodworth line for many years, and some information comes from parish registers, where I didn't write down the source (when I was still a novice at family research) or from other people. Jean Ford has assisted me greatly in producing info. for this part of the tree. However, some marriages I have not entered due to there being two or more possibilities. When carrying out further research It has become obvious that there are records missing from the parish registers. I have used a number of sites in my research: www.freebmd.org.uk, www.ancestry.co.uk, www.familysearch.com, www.thegenealogist.co.uk (I am a member) & www.findmypast.com. I have also made the decision not to go too far down the tree for the descendants, unless they are fairly closely related to myself. However, I have kept the information on file (electronically) so if a descendant would like clarification of some information I can assist them.

Bristol Mercury Saturday 16 April 1842

Our readers will remember that, on the 26th January last, a man named (Forde) should read Barnes, residing in St Philip's, and who was at that time in the employ of Messrs Harding, Cox and Shaw, was charged before the magistrates, at the council-house, with assaulting a boy named SIDNEY BLOODWORTH. It appeared from the evidence then adduced that the boy, who was a native of Dursley, had been placed by his father on the top of a wall attached to Barnes's premises, in order to enable him to have a view of, what he had never before seen, a passing railway train. Barnes's came from his house, and, with ordering him off, seized hold of him in a savage manner, and pulled him down with such violence as to cut his hand, somewhat extensively, against some fragments of broken glass. The magistrates, upon hearing the case, told Barnes that he had broken the law, but granted him permission to retire and settle the complaint with the boy, which he did. The boy returned home to Dursley, where his hand continued to get worse, and on Wednesday, after suffering the most excruciating agony, he died of locked jaw. An inquest was held on the following day (Thursday), at the Star Inn, in that town, before W.J. Ellis, Esq and a respectable jury; and the medical testimony having clearly connected the death with the injury, a verdict of manslaughter against Barnes was returned. The coroner then issued his warrant, and on the same night Superintendent Jerrard, of the county police, came to this city and apprehended him.

Bristol Mercury Saturday 13 August 1842

Charles Barnes a true bill against whom had been ignored by the grand jury, was placed at the bar charged upon the coroner's inquisition with killing and slaying, Sidney Bloodworth at the parish of St Philip and ---- in 1871 Census suggests that Enoch is 'boarding' with Eli & Louisa Leonard?

Death of Charles Bloodworth: Per Newspaper Report: Death of an inmate at Wotton Asylum, Inquest. An inquest was held before Mr J Waghorne, at Wotton County Asylum, Gloucester, yesterday afternoon, on the body of Charles Bloodworth, an inmate of the Asylum who died on the 17th instant. Mr Johnston Vaughan was chosen foreman of the jury. Dr Harold Johnson, assistant medical officer at the Asylum, said the deceased was 79 years of age, and was a farmer at Uley, near Dursley. He was admitted on the 3rd October 1894, as a pauper lunatic. He was very feeble when admitted, and could not walk without assistance, and in consequence of his feebleness, and to prevent him as far as possible hurting himself, he was immediately put into the padded room. He remained there until his death. Witness saw him every day, and sometimes twice a day. He was reported every day as being very restless, noisy, and attempting violence, although at night he was generally quiet. On Friday morning, the 12th instant, it was reported to witness that deceased was complaining of pain in his left side. Witness examined him, and found that he had fractured ribs, about the 8th and 9th on the left side. A bandage was put on, which he displaced immediately. He was then bandaged with strapping, and that dressing he kept on. Deceased, however, died on Wednesday. On enquiring the cause of the fracture he learned from the charge attendant of the ward that deceased had, about half an hour previous to his complaining, been found lying on his face on the padded floor, by the side of a gutta-percha chamber, which was the sole article of furniture, except the bedding, in the room. Witness was of the opinion that deceased sustained his injuries by falling upon the utensil referred to. There was no mark externally. A post-mortem examination was made, and revealed the fact that deceased had been suffering from bronchitis and heart and brain disease. In witness's opinion death was due to bronchitis, and the loss of the use of one lung owing to its collapse, consequent upon the fractured ribs. Louis Sparrow, the charge attendant, of long service at the Asylum, corroborated Dr. Johnson's evidence, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence. Two adult sons of the deceased were present at the inquest.

In the margin it stated Hannah widow of Charles White, this must be an error and should read Harriet widow of Charles White.

The family was split up at this time, with Lewis as a Boarder in Sunderland & Ellen, Lewis, Daniel & Henry (Harry) living in Cumberland. There is a possibility that Arabella went back to her Wright family, but without further details there are just too many to search in Wales.

Notes for Frederick William Rackham:

Info. from Gwen Waters - Genes Reunited DEATH: Border Watch, August 16th 1893; Millicent Suicide and Inquest- from our correspondent On Sunday morning early a report was brought into Millicent, that FW Rackham, an old and well known resident of the district, had committed suicide. Rackham and his wife lived a short distance out of Millicent on the Rivoli Bay South Road and were in very poor circumstances. He had been in bad health for a long time, and only on Saturday last returned home from Mt Gambier Hospital, where had had been a patient. He had been very ill all Saturday night and on Sunday morning said he could not endure his sufferings. He left the house without his wife's knowledge and the next she saw of him was lying dead under a tree. The occurrence caused a painful sensation. An inquest was held on the body by JJ Osman, JP and a jury consisting of Messrs Dodge, Neale, Wilshire, Barker, Giddings and Martin. Mrs Rackham, wife of the deceased, deposed that she was with her husband all night (Saturday)- saw him last alive at sunrise today. Was in the house all night and heard the deceased moaning terribly throughout the night. He had been ill for 3 or 4 months complaining of shortness of breath and pains in the head. He was worse last night. Never saw him like it before. Said he must do something as he could not live any longer with the terrible pain. This morning left him in the house and when next I saw him dead under a tree. It was about 6 o'clock when he left the house. By the Forman- My husband had been in hospital. Left there because he did not think the Doctor could do him any good. He returned home yesterday (Saturday) morning. Left home this morning for assistance because he acted so strangely, he had a knife and said he must take his own life, God would forgive him for the pain was so great. The knife (produced) is like the one he had.. Think it is the same (witness broke down she being much affected by the knife). Lived on good terms with my husband though we often had words. Have been constantly attending him during the last 3 or 4 months. JW Watson, labourer, Millicent North deposed- About 25 minutes past 6 this morning heard someone call out - asked who was there and Mrs Rackham said "Come quickly, Rackham threatens to take his life". Hurried as quickly as possible. When about 4 or 5 chains from Rackham's house, saw deceased walking in direction of where the body lies. Mrs Rackham was with me. Asked her if he had any firearms and she said "No". Started across the road and before I got across the deceased got through Barker's fence and went behind a tree. When I reached him he was sitting down. Put my hand on his head and said "Rackham what does this mean?". Then saw that his throat was cut, the blood rushed over him and on my arms. Then noticed the butcher's knife (produced) in his right hand. He tried to cut himself again but I took the knife from him. He then grabbed the stone (produced) and struck himself twice on the forehead before I could stop him. He lived about a ¼ of an hour. Sent for police and Doctor. Death took place about 6:45. Stood by the body until the police and Doctor came. Have known deceased for several years. He had very poor health lately. Never heard him threaten to take his life. By a juror - deceased never spoke after I saw him. He has been eccentric lately. Have often visited him. T Charles Bennett, Medical Practitioner, said I was called by a boy this morning. Found Rackham dead under a tree in a paddock. Found a large wound in the throat - nearly 5 inches long, which might have been caused by a knife. There were also 2 cuts on the forehead which might have been caused by blows by a stone. The 7 cause of death was loss of blood by the wound in the throat. He had only been dead a few minutes before I arrived. Saw deceased professionally on Tuesday last. Advised him to go to hospital, where he would get proper treatment. Saw him again yesterday (Saturday) morning when he was getting out of the train. Deceased had not been able to sleep for sometime and complained of shortness of breath. In his case want of sleep may have caused temporary insanity. It does sometimes. Consider the wounds were self inflicted. WB Russel. MC, stationed at Millicent said - About 7 this morning received information that F Rackham was bleeding to death. Told the messenger to go for Dr. Bennett. Left with Doctor almost immediately and found body where jury viewed it. Was present when Dr. Bennett pronounced life extinct. Found J Watson in attendance on the body and he informed me deceased had cut his throat with a knife and in struggling to take the knife from the deceased, he (Watson) had thrown it away. Searched for the knife and found it sticking in the ground (knife produced). Knew deceased for sometime. He had not been well lately. On Tuesday night I sent him to the hospital for treatment. He returned from the Mount on Saturday - was in the train with him and he (deceased) said he had left the hospital because doctors could not do anything for him. He looked very ill - did not notice anything strange about him. This closed the evidence and the jury returned the following verdict "Deceased FW Rackham came by his death by cutting his throat while in a state of temporary insanity". Notes for James Bloodworth:

FUNERAL OF JAMES BLOODWORTH - Gloucester Citizen, Saturday 15th December 1894 (online at www.britishnewspaperarchive.co.uk) The funeral of Mr James Bloodworth, the founder of the United Sunday Schools, Bennington Hall, who died at his residence on Tuesday December 11th, took place on Friday afternoon, in the presence of a large assemblage of sorrowing relatives and friends. The coffin was conveyed on a funeral car, and almost hidden by choice floral tributes. The mournful cortege, on leaving Wycombe Villa, St Anne's Road, proceeded by Bennington Hall, where a memorial service was held, conducted by the Rev. W. Cuff, of Shoreditch Tabernacle, London; Rev. R.G. Fairbairn, B.A., of Salem Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a deacon; Rev. T.J. Longhurst, Cambray Baptist Church and the Rev. J. Foster of North Place Church. The platform was draped in black relieved by white ribbon and adorned with palms and white flowering plants. On the arrival of the funeral party Mr A.E. Dicks, F.C.O., played the Dead March in "Saul" on the newly erected organ. After portions of scripture had been read the deceased gentleman's favourite hymn, "Eternal Light" was sung, followed by an address by the Rev. W. Cuff, who spoke of the early influences of Mr Bloodworth on his own heart, and said that his contact with him had influenced all his life and all his labour. Cheltenham was poorer today because that good man had gone to his rest; the Church and Sunday School were poorer, and the family life was poorer when such a husband and father was carried from the door. He expressed his tender sympathy with those who were left behind, and made an appeal that those who had been the subjects of his instruction to yield to his counsel. The service closed with prayer - Amongst the principal mourners were Mrs James Bloodworth (widow), Miss B. Bloodworth, Mr A.G. Bloodworth (daughter and son), Mr George Ward (brother in law) of Burnham, Mrs A.G. Bloodworth, Mrs Warner (sister), Mr Nathaniel Bloodworth, Mr Charles Bloodworth, Mr Joseph Bloodworth, and Mr Frank Ward of Henley-on-Thames (nephew), Mrs Burt of Market Drayton (niece), Miss Kilminster (niece), Mrs Emma Ward and Mrs Jane Woodbridge of High Wycombe (sisters-in-law), Ald. Notes for the web site: www.newmanandbloodworths.co.uk with heading Est, 1842 The UK's Oldest Pet Store, 180 Bath Road, Cheltenham, tel: 01242 521666. History. Bloodworths is believed to be the UK's oldest pet store, founded in 1842 by James Bloodworth. Originally it supplied animal feed to farmers and the public alike, and the business soon expanded to three stores in Cheltenham, Gloucester and Winchcombe. In 1934 the Cheltenham branch, then in Albion Street, became legendary when two circus elephants who were parading through the town entered the store to steal some goodies! The story, so famous in Cheltenham, is depicted in five mosaic murals with over 90,000 pieces, on the side wall of Woolworth's in the High Street. The Bloodworth family connection was severed in 1972 when the executors of the late Mr Bloodworth sold the business to Mr. H A Crawford. It still remains in the ownership of the Crawford family today. It became even more famous when its 150th birthday celebrations were shown on television, the guest of honour being an orphan baby lion cub from the West Midlands Safari Park which had been reared on a special dried cat milk sold in the shop. Today as ever the emphasis is on animal care and the only pets sold are hamsters, gerbils, rats, guinea pigs and rabbits, all of which are ideal to introduce children to good animal husbandry. The main business is the supply of a large range of quality pet foods as well as accessories such as collars, leads, beds, cages, carriers, toys, medicines, treats and bedding. Notes on web site: www.cheltenhamsouthtown.org researcher Marilyn West writes:- In 1965 a very well established name came to Bath Road, Cheltenham. The corn and seed merchant Bloodworth & Son closed their Albion Street shop and made the Bath Road their registered office. The Bloodworth family came from Uley and the founder of the company, James, was born there about 1828. James started the business in Albion Street as the Cheltenham Machine and Hygienic Bakery at the end of the 1840s. The bakery was very large, employing only the best workmen, who used the most modern equipment and the highest quality ingredients thus making it one of the very best in the county. Many a local baker did their apprenticeships here including Dick Cripps from the bakery on the corner of Upper Bath Street. In addition to the bakery, Bloodworths did an extensive trade in hay, straw and animal feeds and this department was situated adjoining the bakery in Albion Street. Bloodworths supplied many local farmers with their animal feeds. Both businesses prospered and new branches were opened in Gloucester and Winchcombe although eventually the company concentrated on the corn merchants side of the business and the bakery closed. In the early 1960s Bloodworths established a mill in Leckhampton Road (near to the railway station) where they manufactured their animal feeds and soon after, they took over the shop at 158 Bath Road. During their stay of over thirty years, Bloodworths did a good trade as garden sundriesmen and established an excellent pet centre. Although the shop closed in 17th January 1998, Bloodworths still remains in the Bath Road, transferring the business to 180 Bath Road to join Newmans hardware store and became Bloodworth and Newman.

Notes for Theodore Adam Gherashe:

Death of Theodore Gherashe: Extracts taken from David Jenkin's version of the Bendall Family Story, taken from "Kaleidoscope" compiled by Merle Houlden:- Whilst Charlotte was pregnant with her 5th child her husband Theodore was killed in a mining accident of 14 December 1864 leaving his wife (30) and family near destitute. Theodore was one of the earliest Greeks to come to Australia, apparently seeking his fortune on the Gold fields of Ballarat and Bendigo. From the Maryborough & Dunnolly Advertiser 2 Dec 1864: A most disheartening accident occurred at the Inkerman on Tuesday afternoon last. A Greek aged about 40 years and named Theodore Jeresshy (sic) had been living there for some time with his wife and children, and it is said in the poorest condition. The poor fellow had been unlucky at the diggings and his family were literally starving. On the Tuesday afternoon he determined to try his luck again, and said he he knew some ground in which gold might be obtained, although it was considered unsafe to work in.

He proceeded to the shaft, and commenced working in an old unpropped dried pit head. He had only been there a few minutes when about 4 cwt. of dirt fell on his back severely injuring his spine. He was conveyed to the Dunnolly Hospital where he now lies in a hopeless state. A little later on 19 December another story appeared in the same paper stating that, the poor fellow Theodore Jeresshy (sic) who was stated about a fortnight since had met with an accident at Inkerman while attempting to work some dangerous ground, for purpose of obtaining a little gold in order to the wants of his family, expired in the Dunnolly Hospital. An inquest was held on his body, before the Coroner Cec Cook Esquire. From the evidence of two witnessess (H.H. Betts & Albert Hutchinson) it appeared the shaft in which the accident occurred was 13ft in depth, and about 4 cwt of the stuff had fallen on the deceased. The ground was extremely rotten, Dr. Macgregor deposed that the deceased was brought into the hospital on 20th ultimo suffering from injuries to the spine. He was treated in the usual way but died on the 14th instant. Witness had made a post mortem examination and found that the body of the 6th dorsal verterbra was fractured. The deceased had died from injuries to the spinal cord, the result of accident. He found no marks of violence on the body except those described. A verdict of accidental death was recorded.

Notes for Millie Mathilda Ninness:

Millie Mathilda was born before her mother married Francis Holmes - no other marriage can be found before this. Millie & her sister Ivy used the surname Holmes on their marriage certificates. Was Francis Holmes their father? All the children were raised by their grandparents because their mother had died and their father had supposedly "run away to the circus". This is now found to be untrue - Donna wrote to me 30 April 2009 "The most interesting item I've found is that Frank Holmes didn't run away to the circus. After attempting to shoot Alice Maria in Sydney in 1897, Frank Holmes was jailed and given the death sentence. This death sentence was later commuted to 12 months imprisonment with the option to petition for release in 3 months. Seems there was a problem with "truth in sentencing" even back then! By 1900 Frank Holmes was living in Victoria and had married Camilla Elizabeth Jones."

Notes for Charles Frederick White:

Baptised with his sister Ellen (my great gran) in Rodbourne Cheney, Wiltshire. Charles (Uncle Fred) married Lavinia (Aunt Viney) Pullen and emigrated to America (Rochester - New York). I contacted, back in 1992, the Rochester Public Library who were then unable to help me. Upon checking through Gran's letters and photos I found new information with which I wrote again to the Library. On 21/2/1997 I had a reply from Pamela O'Sullivan, Local History Division, who gave me the following information: "In the Rochester Suburban Directories of 1955, 1960 and 1965, there is listed at 38 Newfield Drive in Greece, a William Edward White and his wife Celeste (William, son of Fred & Viney). William was employed as a research physicist by Eastman Kodak Co. I did not find him after 1965. I also checked the Rochester City Directory every 5 years, beginning with 1900. There were various listings under Charles F. White; in some cases, two or three. Unfortunately, wives were not listed prior to 1918. Beginning with the 1920 directory then, I located a Charles F. White, wife Lavinia; he was a woodcarver and resided at 244 Driving Park Avenue (1920) and 619 Augustine Street (1925). The 1930 directory indicated that he had died 17/8/1929; a copy of the death notice is enclosed. (This is on file) The 1935 directory indicated that Lavinia, widow of Charles, resided at 100 Oriole Street. She was not listed in the 1940 directory. I hope this is of some help. If you would like a more thorough search, you may want to contact one of the researchers listed in the enclosed brochure". Death Notice for 18/8/1929: WHITE - In this city, August 17 1929, after a long illness, Charles F. White. He is survived by his widow Lavinia Pullen, two sons Charles F. and William E. White. Funeral from the family residence 619 Augustine Street, Monday afternoon at 3.30. Internment in Riverside. Contacted Researcher in Michigan, by the name of Joanne Harvey early in 1999. Gave her all the information on the White Family. Used her as Eddie attended the University of Ann Arbor, Michigan and thought she would be in a suitable position to find info. for me. She tried, without success unfortunately, to find the family and we came up against a brick wall in October 1999, with the wrong Lavinia White being found. She suggested I contact a couple of other researchers, one in New York by the name of Linda Templer-Alexander and the other in Canada, as it is possible the family emigrated to Manitoba at some stage. The New York researcher is brilliant. She found the death of Richard, Charles' son in 1918 and he died of a brain tumour aged 10 years old. Also in records are ashes buried in Charles' grave of one "Elizabeth L. White" in 1964. Linda wrote again December 1999. Unable to find obituary for Aunt Viney as pages were missing - possibly get them from the local college library in the next few weeks. Linda writes "A check of the 1910 Federal Census for the Town of Wayland, Steuben County, New York on sheet 1a for the Supervisor District No. 17, Enumeration District No. 163 taken by Sprague E. Patchin on 15-16 April 1910 shows in dwelling 2, family 2, Charles Frederick and Lavinia White listed as married for 8 years with sons Frederick and Richard, being 5 & 3 years old, respectively. Both boys born in New York State. In column 15 noted that the couple says they came to the country in 1904. Column 16 states that Charles Frederick White has become a naturalized citizen." Also "in the 1910 Federal Census, Charles Frederick White is listed as working in a chair factory.". Success in finding his tombstone in Section P-9 #727. This reads: Charles F. White 1876 a Masonic Emblem 1929 May get further info. from the Masons as they keep excellent records. See notes on Lavinia (Viney), success at January 2000.
