Notes for Albert Vincent Farrington House:

Note from Gillian Preston Smith nee Gorf:

The Farrington Houses were a mariner family in Sittingbourne. Famous amongst bargees.

My Dad believed for years that we had once been from a wealthy family cos of being double-barreled. Whilst doing the tree many years ago I had to let him down gently. John Farrington was married and his wife in an asylum when he got together with Maria House and they produced several children. Confusion reigned as they couldn't decide what surname to use. Ended up with both. Lol.

As an aside, my first husband and I shared Farrington-House great grandparents, making us 3rd cousins. We didn't know, although our parents did but 'forgot' to tell us. So my 2 eldest kids have got a double dose of Farrington-House dna.

I really like the Farrington-House family ... lots of great tales from that branch.
