Christine Vincenti Notes:

My great-great grandparents who settled in South Queensferry c1862.

The Sandercombes came to South Queensferry when James Sandercombe (Steward on the HMS Edinburgh) and his wife Hannah Eliza Roberts moved from Gosport to South Queensferry probably around 1862. James and Eliza were my great-great grandparents. James and Hannah had six children - 5 sons and the last child was a daughter named Hannah after her mother. Unfortunately Hannah died shortly after the birth her daughter Hannah. James remarried a younger local woman (22 years younger than James) Margaret Brown and went on to have 4 more children.

James had a very successful grocery business in the High Street in South Queensferry. His sons took over the business and evidence shows that there was more than one Sandercombe Grocers shop in South Queensferry.

My great-grandfather was Charles Dear Sandercombe who was the son of James Sandercombe and father of Charles and James Sandercombe who were killed in WW1. Charles Dear Sandercombe (father of James and Charles) married Christina Fraser (from Bo'ness) and they had six children - James, William, Daisy, Ann, Christina (my grandmother), Charles and Roderick.

Hannah Eliza Roberts was baptized on 09 Sep 1827 in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire.

Notes for Alison Daisy Sandercombe:

Notes from Christine Vincenti:

Daisy (Allison) and Annie Sandercombe were Charles and James' sisters. Daisy is the photo on the bottom left front row and Annie is in the middle of the front row. They were both in domestic service. I think that they worked at Hopetoun House at one point but Annie latterly went on to work for Colonel Boswell as his housekeeper and worked in his country home at Auchinlech House in Ayrshire (we know that she worked her in 1913 as there is a postcard of the house with a South Queensferry postmark) and later in his town house at 8 Heriot Row. In her later life, Daisy worked for two spinsters who lived in the Grange area of Edinburgh (we have a photo). We have a beautiful chiffon 1920s flappers dress covered with a mother of pearl trim which was given to Annie by the Boswells which their daughter (Jean Boswell) wore to one of her 'debutante balls' in the 1920s. Trafalgar Cottage was run as a guest house. Daisy and Annie worked as servants for other employers but Christina (my grandmother) stayed at home to help her mother run the guest house and to help to look after her parents. My mother told me that her grandmother did not enjoy running a guest house and used to say 'never take in strangers to your house if you can help it'. Perhaps they had some difficult times with some of their lodgers! Death Registration: 10th April 1956 Alison Daisy Brown - Widow of James Brown, Railway Lengthman Died: 9th April 1956 at 8:15 pm, Western General Hospital, Edinburgh (usual residence 13 Catherine Terrace, South Queensferry) Aged: 65 yrs Father: Charles Dear Sandercombe - Master Grocer (deceased) Mother: Christina Sandercombe (Maiden Name: Fraser) (deceased) Cause of Death: Carcinoma of Breast for 11 yrs - Widespread Metastases Informant: Isabel Jacobs (Niece)

She married Charles Alexander James Jacobs, son of Charles Augustus Jacobs and Mary Ann Thomerson, on 07 May 1915 in Rosskeen, Ross-shire, Scotland. He was born on 11 Jul 1889 in Bromley by Bow, London. He died on 04 Dec 1958 in Longmore Hospital, Edinburgh, Scotland.
- vii. CHARLES SANDERCOMBE was born on 23 Feb 1896 in West Terrace, Queensferry, West Lothian, Scotland. He died on 18 Aug 1916 in The Battle of High Wood, The Somme, France (WWII).

Notes for Charles Sandercombe:

Notes from Christine Vincenti: Charles the second youngest child and son. He worked in The Distillery Company in South Queensferry too. See letter of reference from his employer. He joined the 2/10th (Cyclist) Royal Scots Battalion based in Linlithgow. He was later drafted into the 7th/8th King's Own Scottish Borderers and sent to France. He died on Friday 18th August 1916. He died in the Battle of High Wood on 18 August.
http://www.ww1battlefields.co.uk/somme/high_wood.html This was one of the bloodiest battles of the Somme and many lives were lost. His wallet and papers was returned to his family. The wallet has marks on it which was thought to be made by a bayonet (it did not penetrate all the way through) or shrapnel. He is buried in Caterpillar Valley Cemetery, Longueval, Somme, France.

- viii. RODERICK GEORGE SANDERCOMBE was born on 27 Mar 1898 in West Terrace, Queensferry, West Lothian, Scotland. He died on 09 Feb 1944 in Queensferry, West Lothian, Scotland (Buried in unmarked grave at South Queensferry Cemetery).

in Yarmouth, Norfolk.

Sarah Ellen Abraham was baptized on 20 Apr 1873 in Newtown, Gosport, Hampshire.

Notes for George Daniel Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden: George Daniel Osgood, born 30/12/1865 at Portchester, they married on the 18/11/1899, in the parish church at Alverstoke. As a very young man he worked at a lemonade factory, or a brewery, I am not entirely sure, and whilst there he was involved in some horse-play with the other lads, and became deaf as a result. All his life he was very angry about that, also he was illiterate, and it was my father, when he grew up, that kept his business books in order. As I told you in my earlier e-mail, my grandparents started life being very poor, but through his building business, he became quite well off, and had electricity put into his house when ordinary folk still had gas lamps and candles, also he was one of the first in Gosport to have a car. Both of my grandparents are buried in Anns Hill cemetery, my grandfather died on 24/12/1954 aged 89 years, and my grandmother died on 15/9/1962 aged 89 years, I understand that there is a dedication to my father on their headstone, but I haven't been to see it, my father's ashes were scattered at the crematorium in Southampton. My Grandma's son Frederick Riddiford did live in Wiltshire, Trowbridge to be precise, and had an ice-cream factory there, he had been in the army, and I am told that at the Queen's coronation he walked beside the golden coach in ceremonial dress. I cannot confirm this, only that my mother told me this story. A few years ago at my aunt's funeral I met his son Peter, and I was struck by the similarity in looks between him and my father. The first Frederick Riddiford was born in the workhouse on 23/6/1862, and I have seen the entry book at the London Metropolitan Musuem in Clerkenwell, I did think that he was illegitimate, but I don't think that is the case, his mother was discharged a month after his birth. I have memories of Joseph Street and Henry Street in Gosport before they were pulled down, the houses were terraced with the front door opening straight onto the street, now there is only a very tiny section of them both surviving, all the houses have gone. Gosport has changed out of all my recollection, and although I still have many friends, and a few relatives living there, I couldn't go back there to live, I do go back for my school reunion every year. Only Stokes Bay is still roughly the same, and that is lovely to visit, I think Tonbridge has become my home now, I have been here for twenty-six years, and I do like Kent, how about you? When we were first married I came to Maidstone to live, as my husband worked at the National Provincial Bank, we were there for 7 years and then we were sent to Leicester for 3 years, from there we were sent to the Cotswolds for 3 years and then we came back to Kent and have been here ever since, quite a journey really. Tomorrow I am going the the London Metropolitan Archives to do some research on another branch of my family who came from that area of London, genealogy is a fascinating hobby, and I have been contacted by several people who are related to me some way back.

George Daniel Osgood and Sarah Ellen Abraham had the following children:

- iii. GEORGE HARRY OSGOOD was born in Dec 1905. He died on 12 Nov 1965 in Royal Naval Hospital Haslar, St Mary, Alverstoke, Hampshire. He met JEAN ?.

Notes for George Harry Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: George was a Inspector of Painters in Portsmouth Dockyard, and was sent to Malta, whilst there he met Jean who was a sister in the Queen Alexandra nursing corps, they married in Malta, so I haven't a date for their wedding. As they married late in life there were no children.

- 69. iv. NORMAN FREDERICK OSGOOD was born in Mar 1908. He died in 1981. He married Dorothy Nellie Scorey in 1934. She was born on 25 Dec 1909.
- 70. v. IRENE VIOLET OSGOOD was born in Mar 1911. She died in Jan 2001. She married Tom Williams in 1934.
- 71. vi. STANLEY LEWIS OSGOOD was born on 21 Jul 1913 in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire. He died on 24 Jan 1951 in 29 Kensington Road, Gosport, Hampshire. He married Joyce Jemima Lockey on 29 Dec 1937 in Newcastle upon Tyne, Northumberland. She was born on 02 Jun 1913 in Newcastle upon Tyne, Northumberland. She died on 07 Jan 2008 in Maidstone, Kent.

Notes for Frederick Alexander Riddiford:

1881 Census taken by Royal Navy - Vessel "Cruiser" - Fred Riddiford stated as an Orderly aged 18. E-mail from John Riddiford 3/6/2004 - he has recorded all Riddiford's (births, marriages & deaths) for England & Wales 1837-2002. He recorded that Frederick Alexander Riddiford was born 1862 (ref. 1d/697) in Lewisham, London. He thinks that this is "our" Frederick Alexander as there are no others recorded in the country at that time. He died aged 32 in 1896 in Yarmouth, Norfolk (ref. 4b/5). A son was recorded also Frederick Alexander who was born 1893 (ref. 2b/450?) in Portsea (the ref. was difficult to read). The 1901 Census has Frederick H Riddiford (should be 'A') aged 7 born Portsmouth, Hants. Stepson of Head - Charles Osgood, married aged 35 bricklayer, born Portchester, Hants. Wife Sarah Ellen Osgood aged 28 born Gosport, Hants, son Alfred George Osgood aged 7 born Gosport (possibly from a previous marriage - Charles & Sarah may both have been widowed). Address 37 Leesland Road, Alverstoke, Hants. It is possible that Frederick A. Riddiford the younger died aged 69 in Bath in 1963. Note from Jill Pegden: Sarah Ellen Abraham. A little history of her is that she was married to Frederick Alexander Riddiford, and had a son of that name, her husband was in the navy and whilst at Whale Island, which is in Portsmouth Harbour, he had an accident, and didn't report it to the authorities. A month later he died of a brain haemorrhage, probably brought on by the accident. Because of the non-reporting she wasn't entitled to any sort of compensation, so had to go to work, she did work at Gieve's & Hawks, the naval outfitters, and also worked behind a bar, which is where she met my grandfather, George John Osgood. It wasn't a happy marriage, he was a cruel man, and in the first years of their married life they were very poor, but he was a good business man, and as his trade was master builder, he formed his own company and bought land around Gosport, and built houses, which he rented out, they are still in existence today. My father was their youngest child, by the time he was born my grandma was 40, and my grandfather was 45, he was Stanley Lewis Osgood. My mother didn't have a good relationship with the Osgoods, and when my father died, at the age of 37 with Tuberculosis, all contact with them was severed. I still visited my Gran, but really I was too young to be told any family history, you probably know more about the Abrahams than I do. When I was young and lived in Gosport, there was a furniture shop in Stoke Road called Abrahams, and I was given to understand that the people who owned it were related to my Grandma, also that my Grandma's niece, Ella Agnes Drover married Wilfred Treloar, who belonged to the haulage company people, they may still be in

Notes for Beatrice Alice Abraham:

Notes from me: Great Aunt Beattie supposedly eloped with a black man - the full works. Down the ladder etc! I presume this was Abel Street & caused quite a scandal in the family. She had a child out of wedlock - Leonard Christmas. She also owned the South Parade Hotel in Southsea & was a very good cook. I have the recipe for Christmas Pudding that came from her.

67. ALFRED GEORGE⁸ OSGOOD (Sarah Ellen⁷ Abraham, Sarah Ann⁶ Sandercomb, Henry Edward⁵ Sandercomb, Henry Edward⁴ Sandercomb, James (Richard) Brown³ Sandercomb, James² Syndercombe, Edward¹ Syndercombe) was born in Sep 1900. He died in Dec 1942. He married Laura Williams in Mar 1940.

Notes for Alfred George Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: Alfred was in the army and contracted tuberculosis, he died very young

Notes for Laura Williams:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: Laura was welsh and was a servant girl in London I think, perhaps this is where Alfred met her, because I do know that his regiment was one of the horse guards based in London. After his death Laura never married again.

Alfred George Osgood and Laura Williams had the following child:

- i. MARGARET⁹ OSGOOD was born on 26 Apr 1941. She met ? COLLINS.

Notes for Margaret Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: Margaret went on to become a teacher. She emigrated to Canada, married someone called Collins, and had three sons, she was widowed and still lives in Canada.

68. HILDA MAY⁸ OSGOOD (Sarah Ellen⁷ Abraham, Sarah Ann⁶ Sandercomb, Henry Edward⁵ Sandercomb, Henry Edward⁴ Sandercomb, James (Richard) Brown³ Sandercomb, James² Syndercombe, Edward¹ Syndercombe) was born on 08 Oct 1903. She died in Jan 1998. She married Mac Mackenzie in Unmarried.

Notes for Hilda May Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: Hilda met Mac when he was already married and they had a child, Patricia. As Mac was Catholic he couldn't divorce, but he made a home with Hilda and lived with her until he died, which was when he was an old man, there were no children from his first marriage. They lived in Southampton.

Notes for Irene Violet Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: Irene & Tom, ran a smallholding, firstly in Gosport, but after the 2nd world war they bought a smallholding in Stubbington, and supplied all the greengrocer shops in the area with their produce. It was very successful and eventually they bought a farm in the area, which was managed by their son, they made a lot of money through sheer hard graft. Tom died and the son Tommy took over, but unfortunately he died at a fairly young age with a heart attack. The farm was left to Tommy's wife, but the girls still live in Stubbington.

for the lads to see, and my maternal grandma, being a bit of a flirt, did exactly that. There she met my maternal Granddad, from Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and they courted, long distance, for 4 years. Eventually she travelled to Newcastle and married, but she sorely missed her family and would save like mad to come down on the coal boats and spend a month seeing her family. It was whilst on one of these visits that Dorothy Scorey introduced my mum to her fiancée Norman, who in turn introduced mum to his younger brother. They were both shy, but my father fell for mum hook, line and sinker. They married and settled in Gosport. My father was an inspector of fitters in the dockyard, specialising in torpedoes, my mother also worked there in a clerical capacity. During the war they were evacuated to Thatcham with the department. My father was then seconded to the navy as a lieutenant specialising in underwater weapons and was sent to Ceylon, now Sri Lanka. It was during this time that I was born, and my mother went to Newcastle to be with her parents, I was born up there, and stayed there for 18 months. When my father was demobbed from the navy, it was found that he had caught tuberculosis, and after being ill for 5 years he died. My mother never married again and lived in Gosport until she was too old to be on her own, then she moved up to be near us.

Notes for Marian Pragnell:

Correspondence between Sue Duplain & CrossStitchMary (Ancestry)

Hello Sue, Yes, Alice married my cousin Ken in 1942 . Their daughter Marian was born in 1943. Alice died in 1968 and Ken died in Jan.2005. I was told by a joint cousin that Marian continued to live with her father after the death of her mother. Apparently Marian was somewhat of an invalid and Ken did not wish her to marry anyone. I have tried unsuccessfully to find out what happened to her after his death. My husband and I lived overseas from 1953 to 1990 and so did not keep up personally with all that happened within the family during this time. Our periodic visits back here were mainly spent with our parents and Ken seems to have cut himself off from his cousins . I am sorry not to have been of more use to you. I do remember Alice as being a very warm person. The only photos I have of any of them are those shown on my family tree. Do hope you have more
