James could have married more than once. In the IGI it states another marriage for a James Pullen in Castle Combe: James Pullen married Jane in Castle Combe in 1690. She was born abt.1669 Also the Resource File Viewer (Vital Records Index) points out another marriage for a James Pullen: James Pullen married Esther Mallard in Castle Combe 6 Nov 1681. This one is more possible than the above as James did not marry Sarah until 1683. However the IGI states that "this James" was born two years earlier in 1656 - more than one James Pullen???

On 19 May 1829 he was discharged and released. He married Ann Turner at Pitt Water on 19 Sep 1831. Apparently broken-hearted after the death of his wife Joseph Pullen died "An object of Charity" in the colonial hospital on 26 Jun 1844 and was buried in the parish of Trinity, Sorell Jun 28th, 1844. He married (1) Charlotte Cox, married 27 Nov 1820 in St Mary's, Marshfield, Gloucestershire, UK, (see witness 5, 6, 7) b. 1795, (daughter of Mr Cox and Ann Cox) d. 1877 in Gloucestershire, U.K., buried 2 Jun 1877 in Marshfield Congregational Church, Marshfield, Gloucestershire. Charlotte: Mrs J V Thorpe,

Gloucester City Archives says: Mrs Thorpe found that on 1 November 1817 a Charlotte Cox married a William Bush. Neither signed the register and the witnesses were Nathaniel Pullen and Betty Pullen. She checked the Marshfield marriage register and found that Joseph had married Charlotte Bush a widow. Neither signed their name. The witness were William Manfield, Elizabeth Pullen and John Jones. She found that there were no children. Mrs Thorpe then checked burials, etc. and found that on 28 September 1828 Charlotte Pullen of Newport in the parish of Berkely was buried at 33 years of age. It is believed that she must have been born about 1795 - but Gina Parsons has written to say that this is not our Charlotte, and that Charlotte in fact remarried and lived for quite a long while. Gina says: In the 1841 Census Charlotte and Martin were living in Marshfield with their daughter Mary Ann. In the 1851 census they are still in Main Street Marshfield, and Ann Cox is still with them. They had no other children. Charlotte died in 1877 and was buried in the Congregational Church MARSHFIELD on 2nd June 1877 - aged 73. Mary Ann married Henry Tavener. Martin Palmer died and is buried in the Congregational Church Marshfield aged 57. In the 1861 and 1871 censuses Charlotte is living with daughter Mary Ann who is now married to Henry Tavener. She died in 1877 and was buried in the Congregational Church, Marshfield on 2nd June 1877 - aged 73. In other information I have it says that Charlotte was born in 1795, which seems to make sense because I don't think she would have married William Bush at just 14. She probably gave the other date so that she might appear younger. In the marriage certificate of Andrew Pullen and Ann Davis there is a witness named Robert Cox and also in the marriage of Elizabeth Davis and William Ralphs a week later the same Robert Cox is a witness. Mary Jones is a co-witness for Elizabeth's wedding. I have also found the Baptism of Jane daughter of Robert and Mary Cox in December 12 1793, and January 27 1794 the baptism of Hannah daughter of William and Betty Cox.

Notes for Florence Amelia Davies:

[Amelia Pullen2.FBK.FTW] Florence's family after the death of her father, moved to her father's home town of Abergavenny, she was then aged 13 or 14 years. Then like most young girls she entered service as a servant/cook. She at one time worked at a Hotel in London and here she became either an active member or a supporter of the Suffragettes, on Florence's admission. However she was very politically motivated and a staunch supporter of the Tory Party, she was one of 4 women that were founder members of the Women's Tory Party in Abergavenny. Her long service to her political commitments was only acknowledged by the attendance of several ex serving town dignitaries at her funeral. Florence was very fortunate to survive Smallpox as a child, where some of her siblings succumbed to the disease. The smallpox left her quite badly scared on the face, also with an element of deafness. Florence met Ivon Davies at the end of WW1 whilst working as a domestic at the Hen and Chickens Pub in Abergavenny, Ivon was still in the Australian Army and staying at the Pub whilst visiting his family in the area. When they married, Ivon had deserted the Australian Army. Florence dobbed Ivon in to the Police as he couldn't work without his documents and she was pregnant with Stanley, Ivon was court Martial and spent 2 years in a military prison in Ipswich. The oldest and youngest of Florence's children Evelyn and Marjorie were love children, the saddest thing being that Flo had to rear her children with the help only of her mother Amelia. Her husband Ivon, died when Flo was 5 months pregnant with Ivonia. After the death of Ivon, Winifred was reared by Ivon's sister, also named Winifred. Stanley and Ivon were sent to an Orphanage, and went home during the school holidays. Florence had a strong personality, a dispute with a Neighbour ended up in Court and Magistrate Labeling Flo as the: "The uncrowned Queen of Mill Street". She was bound over to keep the piece. To make extra money Flo would lay out the dead in the Neighbour hood, occasionally she attended the deliveries of pregnant women. Flo's qualities were many, she was a superb cook and a true character that we remember with such fondness.

Ivon Geoffrey Davies emigrated from Australia in 1904.

Notes for Albert Richard Pullen:

Albert Pullen, "Bert", joined the First World War with his brother Roland. They were given no choice to "signing on" as there was no work for them. They joined the Gloucestershire Regiment and went to France. This was where Roland was badly wounded and died in England. According to Colin Halliday in Castle Combe, Bert Pullen was badly gassed during the 1st World War and was never the same afterwards.

Notes for Roland Alphaeus Pullen:

Roland worked as a gardener at the Manor House in Castle Combe. He joined the Gloucestershire regiment during the 1914-18 war and went to France. He unfortunately was shot and was bought back to England by ambulance train. He died in Guy's hospital, London at the age of 19. He was one of eight from Castle Combe who died in the 1st World War. Roland is the only one of these buried in the village churchyard as he was the only one to die in England. His grave is marked by a military headstone. The following text is taken from "The Dead Man's Penny" - A History of the Next of Kin Memorial Plaque by Philip Dutton and produced by the Imperial War Museum Review 1988. "A General Committee, representative of both Houses of Parliament and of the Government Departments most concerned has been appointed to consider the question of a memorial to be distributed to the relatives of soldiers and sailors who fall in the war..." "...by 7 November, 1916, as the Times informed its readers, the decision had been made that the cost of the memorial was to be borne by the State. The precise form it was to take was a matter for much longer consideration. The initially accepted idea was that it should be "...a small metal plate recording the man's name and services". ".....August 1917, in the midst of the Third Battle of Ypres, the memorial 'plate' project resurfaced in the General Committee's decision that the commemoration should now take the form of a bronze plaque,.....and the competition for appropriate designs described in extravagant detail". "HE DIED FOR FREEDOM AND HONOUR must form part of the design". "There followed instructions relating to the need to leave space for the deceased person's name and the reminder "that the design should be essentially simple and easily intelligible". ".....In addition to the plaque, a scroll with a suitable inscription will be given. This is being designed at the present moment and it is hoped that it will be possible to put printing in hand in less than a fortnight." "After a flurry of activity following the Daily Mail's premature disclosure of a photograph of the prize-winning medal, the results of the competition were officially announced in The Times for Wednesday 20th March 1918. This was the day before the beginning of the German 'Kaiserschlacht' offensive against British positions on the Western Front, an attack which so narrowly missed making the memorial plaques an interesting irrelevance". "The first prize of £3250 for two model designs, was awarded to 'Pyramus' - E Carter Preston of the Sandon Studios Society, Liverpool". ".....the announcement was stated that 'the King has approved the design'". "Edward Carter Preston's prize-winning design (the museum holds an original model in plaster, catalogue number MEDP/3) comprises the figure of Britannia, classically helmeted and robed, standing facing right, holding a modest laurel wreath crown in her extended left hand and supporting a trident by her right side with her right hand. In the foreground a male lion stands facing right, the animal was originally described as 'striding forward in a menacing attitude' which may explain its unusually low profile. 'Menacing' or otherwise, the proportions of the beast, earlier querieddeeply upset officials at Bristol's Clifton Zoo. Above the lion's head was a blank rectangular panel, in which the name of the deceased would 'by an ingenious method of casting' be inserted. "....a total number of '800,000 plaques to be produced; later estimates have put the total figure at some 1,150,000 specimens." "....The plaques issued commemorated those who died between 4/8/1914 and to January 1920, for Home Establishments, Western Europe and the Dominions". "The scrolls started to be manufactured in January 1919 (the original estimate for the scrolls by the Central School was 'about 970,000) and were sent out in seven and a quarter inch long cardboard tubes with a standard covering letter which bore the facsimile signature of King George V. The letter read as follows: 'I join with my grateful people in sending you this memorial of a brave life given for others in the Great War'. The plaques themselves were despatched under separate cover in stiff card wrapping enclosed within white envelopes bearing the Royal Arms."

Notes for Lavinia Elizabeth Pullen:

Received, at long last, communication with America (Larry White, grandson of Viney) - January 2000. Also communicated with his mother, Celeste White, by letter. She wrote to me 18/1/2000. Have received various communications since with both members of the family.

Notes for Charles Frederick White:

Baptised with his sister Ellen (my great gran) in Rodbourne Cheney, Wiltshire. Charles (Uncle Fred) married Lavinia (Aunt Viney) Pullen and emigrated to America (Rochester - New York). I contacted, back in 1992, the Rochester Public Library who were then unable to help me. Upon checking through Gran's letters and photos I found new information with which I wrote again to the Library. On 21/2/1997 I had a reply from Pamela O'Sullivan, Local History Division, who gave me the following information: "In the Rochester Suburban Directories of 1955, 1960 and 1965, there is listed at 38 Newfield Drive in Greece, a William Edward White and his wife Celeste (William, son of Fred & Viney). William was employed as a research physicist by Eastman Kodak Co. I did not find him after 1965. I also checked the Rochester City Directory every 5 years, beginning with 1900. There were various listings under Charles F. White; in some cases, two or three. Unfortunately, wives were not listed prior to 1918. Beginning with the 1920 directory then, I located a Charles F. White, wife Lavinia; he was a woodcarver and resided at 244 Driving Park Avenue (1920) and 619 Augustine Street (1925). The 1930 directory indicated that he had died 17/8/1929; a copy of the death notice is enclosed. (This is on file) The 1935 directory indicated that Lavinia, widow of Charles, resided at 100 Oriole Street. She was not listed in the 1940 directory. I hope this is of some help. If you would like a more thorough search, you may want to contact one of the researchers listed in the enclosed brochure". Death Notice for 18/8/1929: WHITE - In this city, August 17 1929, after a long illness, Charles F. White. He is survived by his widow Lavinia Pullen, two sons Charles F. and William E. White. Funeral from the family residence 619 Augustine Street, Monday afternoon at 3.30. Internment in Riverside. Contacted Researcher in Michigan, by the name of Joanne Harvey early in 1999. Gave her all the information on the White Family. Used her as Eddie attended the University of Ann Arbor, Michigan and thought she would be in a suitable position to find info. for me. She tried, without success unfortunately, to find the family and we came up against a brick wall in October 1999, with the wrong Lavinia White being found. She suggested I contact a couple of other researchers, one in New York by the name of Linda Templer-Alexander and the other in Canada, as it is possible the family emigrated to Manitoba at some stage. The New York researcher is brilliant. She found the death of Richard, Charles' son in 1918 and he died of a brain tumour aged 10 years old. Also in records are ashes buried in Charles' grave of one "Elizabeth L. White" in 1964. Linda wrote again December 1999. Unable to find obituary for Aunt Viney as pages were missing - possibly get them from the local college library in the next few weeks. Linda writes "A check of the 1910 Federal Census for the Town of Wayland, Steuben County, New York on sheet 1a for the Supervisor District No. 17, Enumeration District No. 163 taken by Sprague E. Patchin on 15-16 April 1910 shows in dwelling 2, family 2, Charles Frederick and Lavinia White listed as married for 8 years with sons Frederick and Richard, being 5 & 3 years old, respectively. Both boys born in New York State. In column 15 noted that the couple says they came to the country in 1904. Column 16 states that Charles Frederick White has become a naturalised citizen." Also "in the 1910 Federal Census, Charles Frederick White is listed as working in a chair factory.". Success in finding his tombstone in Section P-9 #727. This reads: Charles F. White 1876 a Masonic Emblem 1929 May get further info. from the Masons as they keep excellent records. See notes on Lavinia (Viney), success at January 2000.

Notes for Charles Frederick White:

Baptised with his sister Ellen (my great gran) in Rodbourne Cheney, Wiltshire. Charles (Uncle Fred) married Lavinia (Aunt Viney) Pullen and emigrated to America (Rochester - New York). I contacted, back in 1992, the Rochester Public Library who were then unable to help me. Upon checking through Gran's letters and photos I found new information with which I wrote again to the Library. On 21/2/1997 I had a reply from Pamela O'Sullivan, Local History Division, who gave me the following information: "In the Rochester Suburban Directories of 1955, 1960 and 1965, there is listed at 38 Newfield Drive in Greece, a William Edward White and his wife Celeste (William, son of Fred & Viney). William was employed as a research physicist by Eastman Kodak Co. I did not find him after 1965. I also checked the Rochester City Directory every 5 years, beginning with 1900. There were various listings under Charles F. White; in some cases, two or three. Unfortunately, wives were not listed prior to 1918. Beginning with the 1920 directory then, I located a Charles F. White, wife Lavinia; he was a woodcarver and resided at 244 Driving Park Avenue (1920) and 619 Augustine Street (1925). The 1930 directory indicated that he had died 17/8/1929; a copy of the death notice is enclosed. (This is on file) The 1935 directory indicated that Lavinia, widow of Charles, resided at 100 Oriole Street. She was not listed in the 1940 directory. I hope this is of some help. If you would like a more thorough search, you may want to contact one of the researchers listed in the enclosed brochure". Death Notice for 18/8/1929: WHITE - In this city, August 17 1929, after a long illness, Charles F. White. He is survived by his widow Lavinia Pullen, two sons Charles F. and William E. White. Funeral from the family residence 619 Augustine Street, Monday afternoon at 3.30. Internment in Riverside. Contacted Researcher in Michigan, by the name of Joanne Harvey early in 1999. Gave her all the information on the White Family. Used her as Eddie attended the University of Ann Arbor, Michigan and thought she would be in a suitable position to find info. for me. She tried, without success unfortunately, to find the family and we came up against a brick wall in October 1999, with the wrong Lavinia White being found. She suggested I contact a couple of other researchers, one in New York by the name of Linda Templer-Alexander and the other in Canada, as it is possible the family emigrated to Manitoba at some stage. The New York researcher is brilliant. She found the death of Richard, Charles' son in 1918 and he died of a brain tumour aged 10 years old. Also in records are ashes buried in Charles' grave of one "Elizabeth L. White" in 1964. Linda wrote again December 1999. Unable to find obituary for Aunt Viney as pages were missing - possibly get them from the local college library in the next few weeks. Linda writes "A check of the 1910 Federal Census for the Town of Wayland, Steuben County, New York on sheet 1a for the Supervisor District No. 17, Enumeration District No. 163 taken by Sprague E. Patchin on 15-16 April 1910 shows in dwelling 2, family 2, Charles Frederick and Lavinia White listed as married for 8 years with sons Frederick and Richard, being 5 & 3 years old, respectively. Both boys born in New York State. In column 15 noted that the couple says they came to the country in 1904. Column 16 states that Charles Frederick White has become a naturalised citizen." Also "in the 1910 Federal Census, Charles Frederick White is listed as working in a chair factory.". Success in finding his tombstone in Section P-9 #727. This reads: Charles F. White 1876 a Masonic Emblem 1929 May get further info. from the Masons as they keep excellent records. See notes on Lavinia (Viney), success at January 2000.

Notes for Edith Margaret Pullin:

Castle Combe School - Very Early Memories by Edith Jefferies (nee Pullin) Published in "The Honeycomb" - August 1998 "I was born in Castle Combe in 1907. We lived in the cottage next to the Castle Inn until I was about 6. My father had a plumbing and decorating business and we moved up the hill to Bethal Place, now known as "Old Werretts", to give him more room for his expanding business. When I started school, the headmistress was Mrs Sully and her daughter was the only teacher. One of my earliest memories was at the age of 4. All the school children went to the Manor House Park right next to the school to celebrate the Coronation of King George V. We had tea provided on long trestle tables and at the end of the tea we were each presented with a commemorative mug by Sir John Gorst, who was the owner of Castle Combe estate. I still have that mug displayed in my china cabinet as I've always liked the shape. In 1919, together with Evelyn Brookman, I was one of the first to win a free place to Chippenham Secondary School. On my marriage in 1926, I finally settled in Chippenham, where I have lived ever since."
