Notes for John Read:

Notes from Syd Hockey (Genes Reunited) - syd@sydandjudy.freemove.co.uk:- This is what I found out about the living conditions in the CUSHEN COURT area of SOUTHAMPTON around 1850. Times were hard for the ordinary people of Southampton in the middle of the 19th century, as this description of local homes from 1850 highlights. This is a report of an inspector who toured the poorer areas of Southampton, where the pigs seemed to have shared homes with their owners. I visited 115 different yards, passages and courts, containing numerous tenements occupied by a great number of people. In each place at the time of my inspection, there were accumulations of ashes, animal and vegetable refuse, in corners of premises, upon the surface of the yards, in cellars, and in some instances in ash pits. In fact scavenging does not reach the poorer districts where most needed. Slaughterhouses, about 20 in number, are in close proximity to dwelling houses, whilst in almost in every instance there are middens (dungheaps) in the courts where the offal of the slaughtered animals is deposited. It seems there are no less than 99 yards and alleys, containing 760 houses and occupied by 4,378 persons. In some instances the people have no privy accommodation of any kind, in others, as many as 74 people use a single privy in common. The privies are generally close to the dwellings, the walls in many cases saturated with foetid fluid, and in some cases flowing on to the floors of rooms occupied by families. In 38 courts, comprising 245 houses, occupied by 1,232 persons, the drains are upon the surface, and in numerous instances, for want of proper attention to the fall, the foul water and other refuse lies upon the surface, without any means of discharge, emitting foul smells. Water is not laid on to more than one third of the better class of houses. There is a population of 4,378 persons residing in different courts, most of whom have no supply of any kind, except by fetching from one or other of the stand pipes and having to travel for that purpose in some cases nearly an eighth of a mile for each load of water. Very many of the houses are built back to back, in many cases their condition is rendered worse from being in close proximity with pig sties, the latter standing against the walls, close to windows and doors, and in some instances only separated from the living and sleeping rooms by boarding. In one instance the pig sty is under the room. There are several common lodging houses in the town, and in some of these several beds are placed, from one to six in the same apartment, in which lodgers are accommodated without much regard to sex or age, in one I found 22. The charge for accommodation is 3d (1p) per night for part of a bed.

John Read and Charlotte Abraham had the following children:

- i. MARY JANE<sup>9</sup> READ was born on 11 Sep 1835 in Southampton, Hampshire. She died on 08 Apr 1838 in Southampton, Hampshire.
- ii. JOHN JAMES READ was born on 02 Feb 1837 in Southampton, Hampshire. He died on 20 Mar 1857 in Southampton, Hampshire.

Notes for John James Read:

Information from Syd Hockey (Genes Reunited):- The memorial inscription on John's grave reads: "This stone was erected by his affectionate mother to the beloved memory of JOHN JAMES READ professor of the violin." I found the following in local newspapers: THE HAMPSHIRE INDEPENDENT. READ. March 20th, In the 20th year of his age, Mr JOHN READ leader of the band at the THEATRE ROYAL, SOUTHAMPTON, whose premature death we be long and deeply felt by his numerous friends, both private and professional. THE HAMPSHIRE ADVERTISER. Yesterday (friday) after a few days illness, Mr JOHN JAMES READ, leader of the orchestra at the SOUTHAMPTON THEATRE, aged 20 years. The deceased was a promising musician, and bid fair to have obtained a prominent position in his profession. The THEATRE ROYAL was in FRENCH STREET, and CUSHEN, S COURT opened off the west side of FRENCH STREET, so JOHN would have ben living close to his place of work. You can see a picture of the THEATRE ROYAL, with a brief history, on PortCities SOUTHAMPTON on:

Notes for Sophia Ann Abraham:

Note for Birth: Charles Eldridge told me she was born in Mar 1835 but she was actually born in the Jun Qtr 1855 - 20 yrs difference! The birth is registered on Free BMD Ref. 2b 393 Alverstoke. This fits much better than the original date anyway. Clarified in further Census in 1881 & 1891. The Cutler family lived in Henry Street in 1891, alongside many other members of the family, proving this is the correct Sophia Ann.

Notes for William Cutler:

Birth/Baptism: cannot seem to find either for William Cutler/Cuttler either on FreeBMD, Ancestry or Family Search, 1901 Census - working as a Master Mariner died on 15 Sep 1962 in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire. She married George Daniel Osgood on 18 Nov 1899 in Parish Church, Alverstoke, Hampshire. He was born on 30 Dec 1865 in Portchester, Hampshire. He died on 24 Dec 1954 in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire. She married Frederick Alexander Riddiford, son of Ann Riddiford, on 06 May 1893 in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire. He was born on 23 Jun 1862 in Union Workhouse, Lewisham, Kent. He died in 1896 in Yarmouth, Norfolk.

Sarah Ellen Abraham was baptized on 20 Apr 1873 in Newtown, Gosport, Hampshire.

Notes for George Daniel Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden: George Daniel Osgood, born 30/12/1865 at Portchester, they married on the 18/11/1899, in the parish church at Alverstoke. As a very young man he worked at a lemonade factory, or a brewery, I am not entirely sure, and whilst there he was involved in some horse-play with the other lads, and became deaf as a result. All his life he was very angry about that, also he was illiterate, and it was my father, when he grew up, that kept his business books in order. As I told you in my earlier e-mail, my grandparents started life being very poor, but through his building business, he became quite well off, and had electricity put into his house when ordinary folk still had gas lamps and candles, also he was one of the first in Gosport to have a car. Both of my grandparents are buried in Anns Hill cemetery, my grandfather died on 24/12/1954 aged 89 years, and my grandmother died on 15/9/1962 aged 89 years, I understand that there is a dedication to my father on their headstone, but I haven't been to see it, my father's ashes were scattered at the crematorium in Southampton. My Grandma's son Frederick Riddiford did live in Wiltshire, Trowbridge to be precise, and had an ice-cream factory there, he had been in the army, and I am told that at the Queen's coronation he walked beside the golden coach in ceremonial dress. I cannot confirm this, only that my mother told me this story. A few years ago at my aunt's funeral I met his son Peter, and I was struck by the similarity in looks between him and my father. The first Frederick Riddiford was born in the workhouse on 23/6/1862, and I have seen the entry book at the London Metropolitan Museum in Clerkenwell, I did think that he was illegitimate, but I don't think that is the case, his mother was discharged a month after his birth. I have memories of Joseph Street and Henry Street in Gosport before they were pulled down, the houses were terraced with the front door opening straight onto the street, now there is only a very tiny section of them both surviving, all the houses have gone. Gosport has changed out of all my recollection, and although I still have many friends, and a few relatives living there, I couldn't go back there to live, I do go back for my school reunion every year. Only Stokes Bay is still roughly the same, and that is lovely to visit, I think Tonbridge has become my home now, I have been here for twenty-six years, and I do like Kent, how about you? When we were first married I came to Maidstone to live, as my husband worked at the National Provincial Bank, we were there for 7 years and then we were sent to Leicester for 3 years, from there we were sent to the Cotswolds for 3 years and then we came back to Kent and have been here ever since, quite a journey really. Tomorrow I am going to the London Metropolitan Archives to do some research on another branch of my family who came from that area of London, genealogy is a fascinating hobby, and I have been contacted by several people who are related to me some way back.

George Daniel Osgood and Sarah Ellen Abraham had the following children:

163. ii. HILDA MAY OSGOOD was born on 08 Oct 1903. She died in Jan 1998. She married Mac Mackenzie in Unmarried.
- iii. GEORGE HARRY OSGOOD was born in Dec 1905. He died on 12 Nov 1965 in Royal Naval Hospital Haslar, St Mary, Alverstoke, Hampshire. He met JEAN ?.

Notes for George Harry Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: George was a Inspector of Painters in Portsmouth Dockyard, and was sent to Malta, whilst there he met Jean who was a sister in the Queen Alexandra nursing corps, they married in Malta, so I haven't a date for their wedding. As they married late in life there were no children.

164. iv. NORMAN FREDERICK OSGOOD was born in Mar 1908. He died in 1981. He married Dorothy Nellie Scorey in 1934. She was born on 25 Dec 1909.
165. v. IRENE VIOLET OSGOOD was born in Mar 1911. She died in Jan 2001. She married Tom Williams in 1934.
166. vi. STANLEY LEWIS OSGOOD was born on 21 Jul 1913 in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire. He died on 24 Jan 1951 in 29 Kensington Road, Gosport, Hampshire. He married Joyce Jemima Lockey on 29 Dec 1937 in Newcastle upon Tyne, Northumberland. She was born on 02 Jun 1913 in Newcastle upon Tyne, Northumberland. She died on 07 Jan 2008 in Maidstone, Kent.

Notes for Frederick Alexander Riddiford:

1881 Census taken by Royal Navy - Vessel "Cruiser" - Fred Riddiford stated as an Orderly aged 18. E-mail from John Riddiford 3/6/2004 - he has recorded all Riddiford's (births, marriages & deaths) for England & Wales 1837-2002. He recorded that Frederick Alexander Riddiford was born 1862 (ref. 1d/697) in Lewisham, London. He thinks that this is "our" Frederick Alexander as there are no others recorded in the country at that time. He died aged 32 in 1896 in Yarmouth, Norfolk (ref. 4b/5). A son was recorded also Frederick Alexander who was born 1893 (ref. 2b/450?) in Portsea (the ref. was difficult to read). The 1901 Census has Frederick H Riddiford (should be 'A') aged 7 born Portsmouth, Hants. Stepson of Head - Charles Osgood, married aged 35 bricklayer, born Portchester, Hants. Wife Sarah Ellen Osgood aged 28 born Gosport, Hants, son Alfred George Osgood aged 7 born Gosport (possibly from a previous marriage - Charles & Sarah may both have been widowed). Address 37 Leesland Road, Alverstoke, Hants. It is possible that Frederick A. Riddiford the younger died aged 69 in Bath in 1963. Note from Jill Pegden: Sarah Ellen Abraham. A little history of her is that she was married to Frederick Alexander Riddiford, and had a son of that name, her husband was in the navy and whilst at Whale Island, which is in Portsmouth Harbour, he had an accident, and didn't report it to the authorities. A month later he died of a brain haemorrhage, probably brought on by the accident. Because of the non-reporting she wasn't entitled to any sort of compensation, so had to go to work, she did work at Gieve's & Hawks, the naval outfitters, and also worked behind a bar, which is where she met my grandfather, George John Osgood. It wasn't a happy marriage, he was a cruel man, and in the first years of their married life they were very poor, but he was a good business man, and as his trade was master builder, he formed his own company and bought land around Gosport, and built houses, which he rented out, they are still in existence today. My father was their youngest child, by the time he was born my grandma was 40, and my grandfather was 45, he was Stanley Lewis Osgood. My mother didn't have a good relationship with the Osgoods, and when my father died, at the age of 37 with Tuberculosis, all contact with them was severed. I still visited my Gran, but really I was too young to be told any family history, you probably know more about the Abrahams than I do. When I was young and lived in Gosport, there was a furniture shop in Stoke Road called Abrahams, and I was given to understand that the people who owned it were related to my Grandma, also that my Grandma's niece, Ella Agnes Drover married Wilfred Treloar, who belonged to the haulage company people, they may still be in existence today.

Note from Philip Goater: There is obviously a 'loose' link between generation 7 and generation 8 concerning Henry Fox and his middle name. I had quite a discussion on rootschat and the conclusion was that Henry James for some reason became Henry John by the time of his wedding. His father's name was given as William at the wedding and although Henry James Fox married at Holy Trinity Gosport not long after it would appear that he was somewhat older. The date of birth, father's name and place of birth all fit and there are no alternatives recorded on FreeBMD etc.

Henry (John) James Fox and Harriet Fanny Scarlett had the following child:

191. i. HILDA MAY<sup>11</sup> FOX was born in 1879 in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire. She died on 28 Jun 1917 in 51 Hymers Avenue, Hull, Yorkshire. He died in Dec 1942. He married Laura Williams in Mar 1940.

Notes for Alfred George Osgood:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: Alfred was in the army and contracted tuberculosis, he died very young

Notes for Laura Williams:

Note from Jill Pegden nee Osgood: Laura was welsh and was a servant girl in London I think, perhaps this is where Alfred met her, because I do know that his regiment was one of the horse guards based in London. After his death Laura never married again.

Alfred George Osgood and Laura Williams had the following child:

- i. MARGARET<sup>12</sup> OSGOOD was born on 26 Apr 1941. She met ? COLLINS.

There she met my maternal Granddad, from Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and they courted, long distance, for 4 years. Eventually she travelled to Newcastle and married, but she sorely missed her family and would save like mad to come down on the coal boats and spend a month seeing her family. It was whilst on one of these visits that Dorothy Scorey introduced my mum to her fiancée Norman, who in turn introduced mum to his younger brother. They were both shy, but my father fell for mum hook, line and sinker. They married and settled in Gosport. My father was an inspector of fitters in the dockyard, specialising in torpedoes, my mother also worked there in a clerical capacity. During the war they were evacuated to Thatcham with the department. My father was then seconded to the navy as a lieutenant specialising in underwater weapons and was sent to Ceylon, now Sri Lanka. It was during this time that I was born, and my mother went to Newcastle to be with her parents, I was born up there, and stayed there for 18 months. When my father was demobbed from the navy, it was found that he had caught tuberculosis, and after being ill for 5 years he died. My mother never married again and lived in Gosport until she was too old to be on her own, then she moved up to be near us.

Notes for Beatrice Florence Rogers:

Note from Ken Grant: Thank you for making contact on Genes Reunited. My connection with the Abraham side of the family is through Florence May Abraham who was the daughter of Thomas Abraham & Louisa Jane nee Pearson. Thomas & Louisa Jane married at St Marys Church on the 25 Apr 1876. So far as I'm aware they had six children one of whom was Florence May Abraham. Florence married Lewis Frederick Charles Rogers in 1903 and they had four children one of whom was Beatrice Elizabeth Rogers born 1905. She married James Edward Grant on the 22 July 1933 at St Marys Church. They had two children but unfortunately they were all killed along with the children's grandparents Lewis & Florence Rogers when a 500lb bomb hit their home at 123. Clive Road, Fratton on the night of 11th-12th March 1941. I have more on this story if it's of interest. I have attached their head stone in Milton, Portsmouth. I'm sorry this is not the best of stories for your family tree but there are happier ones too.
