Notes for Albert Henry Gooding:

Below information is from David Shepard descendant of James John Gooding & Ethel Amelia Herrick.

Story of Albert Gooding and Alice Ramsbottom:

Arrived in USA 6 Oct 1904 New York

Emigrated with Gooding Family.

Listed as Servant, age 18.

The Gooding's would have been unlikely to ever having afforded a servant, much less able to pay her way to America. Surely, she was betrothed to Albert Henry.

Her age would have been closer to 20, nearly 21. But Albert was 18, so she may have not wanted to appear older than him?

Albert Henry Gooding, age 19, and Alice Winifred Ramsbottom, age 21 were married 4 May 1905. Perhaps they waited until Albert was able to get employment and could afford to start a family before they married.

1910 Census: lived at 239 Lincoln St, Durand Village, Shiawassee Co, Michigan:

Census Residents: Albert Gooding - head - 24 - Bridge Builder, wife Alice - 25, son Ida (Ide) E. - 4, daughter Winifred - 2, daughter Dorothy L. - 1

About 1911, (Dorothy would have been only 2 at this time)

(Note: Paul Gallagher of England, provided the following in 2016)

When Albert Gooding became ill, his wife, Alice Ramsbottom had 5 young children to care for. Alice's sister, Rachel Harflett and her husband Arthur came from England to help out. Rachel took Dorothy to raise, to help Alice out. Arthur had an opportunity to go to work for his UK company in Canada, where they moved in 1911. When war broke out in 1914, Arthur was told to return to the UK as he worked for the Royal Arsenal. They took Dorothy with them without permission. Dorothy was brought up as the Daughter of Rachel and Arthur Harflett, and was un-officially known as Dorothy Harflett, as she was never officially adopted. Her legal name remained Gooding. It was some 50 years later that she returned to the US and met her brothers and sisters.

Albert died 21 Jun 1913 of Tuberculosis

No indication if he died at home or elsewhere, listed as Vernon Twp.

Occupation listed as Farmer

Winnifred born 18 Sep 1907 -5

Dorothy born 14 Mar 1909 - 4 (already in Canada with aunt)

Elsie Mae born 7 Jun 1911 - 2

Lillian born 22 May 1912 - 14 months

In 1913, there would have been no social programs to help indigent mothers. The young families of Albert's siblings were just getting started in new country and would have had limited resources.

Ide was told he was now on his own, and went to live with a farm family (Frappier) that raised him. (Can anyone imagine, at age 7, to be given to a different farm family and told you were now on your own?)

Winifred went to live with Maria and Robert Brunger, a 1st cousin of Albert. Maria Brunger's mother and Albert's Mother were Ottaway sisters. Maria and Robert were first cousins and never had any children of their own, so they raised Winnie. Alice had the two youngest children (as Dorothy had gone to live with Alice's sister in 1911). At some point Alice went to live with Edwin Herrick. (Grandma Denison's father)

Alice married Edwin Freeman Herrick on 23 Mar 1915.

Edwin was Alice's sister in law's father (Ethel Gooding)

Alice would have been 31, and Edwin 58 5 Jun 1919, Frank Herrick was born, the only child of Alice and Edwin Herrick.

Edwin Herrick died 24 Mar 1925, age 68 of Luyocarditis?? (hard to read death certificate)

Alice and Edwin would have been married 10 years. And Frank would have been 6 years old. Again, a young child for Alice to raise with no means of support.

17 Oct 1947 - Alice Ramsbottom (Gooding) (Herrick) died, never having seen her daughter, Dorothy, who she gave to her sister at age 2.

Alice Died at home of daughter Lillian Walters, having been ill past 6 years.

4/20/20. Marion Reed drove by the Lincoln and Oak Street addresses - wanted to see what houses looked like. Lincoln dead ends at Riverside Parking lot. I think the 239 Lincoln would have been in the post office south parking lot. The 312 Oak is across the street from Riverside about where the apartments are.

Dave observed: Interesting to learn. Certainly not in the rich part of town, instead, down by the rail-yards. Dirty and noisy from the Steam Engines in those days. So cheaper rents.

Observation:

For Alice, coming to America with the Gooding's to start a new life with her future husband would have certainly been rich with promise. Marrying your beloved and quickly having 5 children. And then so quickly life changes direction. By 1911, Albert was ill. Then to lose your husband so young, after only 8 years. The children had to be parceled out to others to raise. Even after marrying Edwin Herrick, only with him for 10 years, so again living a life of survival with a new 6 yr old son.

Notes for Alice Winifred Ramsbottom:

Following info from Dave Shepard, descendant:

Alice married Edwin Freeman Herrick on 23 Mar 1915.

Edwin was Alice's sister in law's father (Ethel Gooding)

He married Ethel Amelia Herrick, daughter of Edwin Freeman Herrick and Zella Irene McGraw or Magraw, on 21 Oct 1907 in Quartz Creek, Genesee, Michigan, USA. She was born on 16 Aug 1889 in Genesee County, Michigan, USA. She died on 03 Jul 1969 in Shiawassee County, Michigan, USA.

James John Gooding was baptized on 13 May 1888 in Rainham, Kent.

Notes for James John Gooding:

All of the information below comes from David Shepard a descendant of James & Ethel.

James Henry Gooding and "Eliza" Ottaway: Arrived: Oct 1904

James was 57, Eliza 56

Amazing to make such a journey and start a new life at that age: They arrived in New York City on 16 Oct 1904 on the ship - US New York.

James John (I listed him James John Gooding I) as middle name differs. Some family records called him James Gooding II, as his father was James Henry Gooding

James John, came to US from England in 1904, about the same time as his parents and siblings came to the US. He was 16. They came thru Ellis Island, and appear to have come directly to Michigan, first settling in Clayton Township (Flushing area).

James married Ethel Amelia Herrick in 1907. He was 19, she was 18. She came from a relatively stable family who owned their own 40 acre farm.

James was a tenant farmer his whole life. This was a tough life. It included going through the Depression. Evelyn told the story of walking to school with a raw potato in her pocket to eat for her lunch. She wore cardboard in the bottoms of her shoes to cover up the holes. They had bees on the farm and used honey instead of expensive sugar.

James had a farm auction and sold everything to pay debtors in 1926. Yet started farming again. They moved often, living on rented farms, generally in the Durand area. James was described as moody and difficult. He was not a good father to his children. He died in 1937, leaving Ethel with 3 children still at home. Albert, the eldest at home, farmed for a couple of seasons, but then Ethel sold all remaining farm equipment in 1938. They were still farming with horses, not able to afford a tractor. Yet James and Ethel raised 8 children to adulthood, to lead good stable lives. They did some things right.

Notes for Ethel Amelia Herrick:

Following info from Dave Shepard a descendant of James & Ethel Amelia:

Ethel Herrick was born on Hill Road near Swartz Creek. She was one of three children, with sister "Renee" (Irene) and brother Herbert Herrick
Her mother died in 1911, age 46. Her father lived to age 68.

Ethel certainly had a hard life married to James. Ethel had shared the story that James often became moody, and would wrap himself in an old blanket and stay in the haymow. She would have to go and sweet talk to him and get him to come back into the house.

After his death in 1937, she married Judd Denison, a widower, in 1943. In these times, it was common for older people to marry out of necessity. Judd was a bit older and appears to have needed someone to care for him, and Ethel certainly needed someone to support her. They were married 10 years, Judd passing in 1953. During this time Ethel took in laundry and had a large mangle iron set up in the dining room to iron clothes. She collected Cacti Plants, some of which did not smell too good when they bloomed. They brought Evelyn and her family into their home in 1947, when Evelyn and Earl moved off the farm in Gaines and Earl was hospitalized. They stayed for several months. This was very generous of Judd and Ethel.

After Judd passed, Ethel then tried living in a few places, as the home had to be sold. She then bought a small house trailer and lived behind Evelyn and Earl. A few months later she moved down the hill and lived beside Helen and Earl, for maybe a year. Then she moved to live with Ernie Bedell (an uncle of Cousin Donald) in a rented home in the country, at corner of Rolston and Seymour Roads. They had no phone, and no car, and Ernie's family took them shopping weekly. Yet, this may have been some very pleasant years for both of them. I recall an incident where Ethel was invited to a family event, and she asked if it was just for her or for her and Ernie. When told it was just for her, she replied that if Ernie was not invited, she was not going. Ernie was always invited after that.

Ethel died July 8, 1969, 5 days before David's wedding. She had an Abdominal Aneurysm. (WARNING - THIS IS A HEREDITARY CONDITION) Aunt Rosie died of this also. Cousin Dr. Jim advises that the entire family should note this condition to their doctors and be tested for this a part of their physical's. It is a singular test that need not be repeated, unless a condition is noted.

Harry Gooding - age 12 when arrived:

Married Ella Jane Tullar 26 Sep 1911. She was 17.

They had four Children - Frederick, Grace, Kenneth, Francis (last born in 1922)

Evelyn told the story that Ella decided she no longer wanted to be married to Harry and just left, leaving him with the kids.

Evelyn also shared that while they lived on Byron Road, Harry asked her dad if he could leave the children for the weekend, as there was an elderly couple he was going to drive to Canada to visit family.

Come Monday, he was still not back, when Evelyn went to school.

On Tues, still no Harry, so the kids were sent to school with Evelyn. A few days later they learned he was detained at the border, attempting to smuggle booze into US.

Harry evidently was picked up a few times, and reported was told that if picked up again, was going to jail for a long time. He and Ella were divorced in 1923. She remarried 6 months later.

Harry moved to Canada and remarried in 1924. He had four more children.

The four from his first marriage all stayed in US. Evidently, the relationship with Ella was not too strained, as she they raised these four.
