Notes for Elisha Bond:

1881 Census 27 Percy Place, St Lawrence, Reading, Berkshire

Elisha has decided he is now "Unmarried" despite no divorce being shown on any records! When his wife Ann dies in 1913 she is stated as "Widow of Elisha Bond". Did he abscond from the family for some unknown reason?

Also Ann in the 1881 Census is stated as a "Widow" so possibility he did leave his family & Ann thought he was dead!

This is now pretty much confirmed as Elisha didn't die until Jan-Mar 1889 in Reading, Berkshire. Ann by this time had moved to be with family in Alverstoke, Gosport, Hampshire Death Certificate attached. He died in the Union Workhouse, Reading.

Ann Maria Everley was baptized on 25 Feb 1816 in Wiltshire, England (0 Age: 0).

Notes for Alfred Bond:

Birth Discrepancy

I have Alfred's Birth Certificate stating he was born 23 April 1851. However on his Military Documents (Enlistment Paper & Registry) he gives his birth date as 13 June 1850! He lied about his age to get into the Royal Marines as he would only have been 16. The proof of this is when his birth was registered on 4th June 1851.

Info. from Pauline Wales nee Bond Jun 2005 Alfred joined the Marines where he served for 21 years, becoming a Buglar Major - only 4 Marines in the Country hold that rank at any one time. In June 1889 he left to become a publican in Gosport, Hants and later in Portsmouth and Southsea. The Castle Tavern, 25 Green Road, Portsmouth, was run by Alfred until his death and then Beatrice and her husband continued to run it until approx. 1925. Notes from The National Archives: Alfred joined the Royal Marines 13 December 1867, HQ, Gosport, Hampshire. He was stated as "Under Age" 13 December 1867, having joined aged 17. Promoted to Sergeant in 1885. He left the Royal Marines 19th

Notes for Beatrice Annie Bond:

1911 Census - 2 Apr 1911 No children born yet to the couple. Lisa Notes: In January 2015 I had a surprise contact from a lady called Lynne who had been given a small brown spectacle case by a friend who owned an Antique shop in Spain. Inside the case was a bundle of papers all referring to my family, in particular Beatrice Annie. The items were: Half Birth Certificate of Cecilia Kate May Bond (my gt grandmother) - known as "Kate" (date 1st May 1877) Half Birth Certificate of Mary Bond (Cecilia's Sister) (date 11th May 1886) Half Birth Certificate of Beatrice Annie herself - known as "Annie" (dated 15th June 1880) Marriage Certificate of Alfred Bond & Mary Ann Richardson (dated 10th July 1876) A very small photo which can only be Mary Ann Bond (nee Richardson) as my Mum had met the other female members & told me the photo definitely was not one of them (see Media on her page) A Full Birth Certificate of Alfred Bond dated 23rd April 1851 A Blue Letter dated 28th August 1878 referring to duty to be paid on a Will for "Mary Ann Clifton of Boston" stating "4 Messuages in Shodford's Lane Boston left by Eliz Perry" addressed to Mrs C.C. Richardson I haven't the slightest notion what the letter is but don't think at this present time it is relating to my direct family. Also in the spectacle case was a letter written by "Annie" to her sister "Kate" as follows (undated possibly 1914-1918 as War is mentioned?): "Dear Kate don't get discouraged perhaps some day we meet again don't work too hard. I am glad you and dear Mother is together you can have a little peace of mind. I wonder where the old wreck is will he die in a ditch I ask myself, if we had but had a good Father how different everything might have been. Well now dear I hope your health will keep good and dear Mother to we are all mostly well now sometimes we grumble and groan a little but we get over it again I hope you do the same now I'll close with our best love to you both and all and remain your loving Sister Annie. The girls shall write just as soon as they can to you they often talk of you day it's real nice, just fancy my baby 4 years old on the 9th of October. She is the last one that's better than Nos 15, No 8 that they way to do business isn't it, well now I hope this war is not going to make bad times for you this winter they say it will make bread dear it is horribly bad I think I was glad to hear that you enjoyed yourselves at all. Give our best love to all the Baby included when you write to them the same to William and family when we come back there will be so many..... and ..... I shall not know, that it will distract me, (ask me shall I ever come back) I would give a great deal to see you once more dear Mother, but al'ls for the best if we could but think so". I wonder if there are pages missing as the writing does not seem to follow on? It seems like my great great grandfather was a drunkard & possibly more than that, as Annie had left home because of it. Who was William & the children? The spectacle case was either in a house clearance in or around Exeter or Javea in Spain. I presume this letter actually belonged to my gt grandmother Cecilia "Kate" or her mother Mary Ann Woodhead Bond nee Richardson. The mystery deepens! 21st January 2015
